Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming
Kuzco, a youth who is heir to the throne of a mythical Andean country, must graduate from Kuzco Academy before he can become Emperor of his land. He lives with a peasant foster family and faces the intellectual, physical and social challenges that all teens face, while also preparing to rule justly and well. Sometimes Kuzco wonders whether being Emperor for the rest of his days will be a pleasure or a trap. Kuzco thwarts attempts by the nefarious Yzma and her henchman, Kronk, to stop him from doing well in school. If Kuzco were to fail at his class work, Yzma would become Empress. Kuzco struggles to complete his assignments and stay on track. Only if he remains steadfast, studies hard, learns from his mistakes, and can relate to citizens at all levels of society, will he ascend the throne. His best friend Malina, an excellent student, attempts to help Kuzco stay out of trouble and achieve his goals. Series episodes explore issues such as coping with peer pressure, respecting authority, taking responsibility, adhering to family and school rules, accepting differences, building self-esteem and trust. Local Eyewitness News special report on Saturday, 2/6/10, from 10:30 AM to 6:30 PM, regarding local storm and mud slide coverage in SoCal.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Riley and Todd, siblings who were raised in an orphanage after the death of their parents, long to be adopted. They find a comic book advertisement for Fleemco, an agency that will provide "Replacement" parents or adults to substitute for certain individuals. Brother and sister decide to send in the $1.98 fee in hopes of obtaining parents to replace their lost ones. They acquire an unorthodox pair of Replacement parents, Dick Daring and Agent K. Dick is a former daredevil stuntman and Agent K is a British super-spy. Neither seems to know much about parenting, although their intentions are good. Agent K's highly intelligent automobile, C.A.R., her former spy partner, also joins the household. Their attempts to forge a family and adjust to a new school are both touching and comedic. Riley and Todd discover that they can call Fleemco to request replacement of any adult whom they dislike, who is overly strict, or who is merely uninteresting. The temporary Replacements for teachers, neighbors or other community figures never prove to be as exciting or fun as the siblings had hoped, and are often immature and obnoxious. As things go awry, Riley and Todd learn that they need adult leadership, discipline, role models, order and structure. By the end of each story they are eager to return the Replacement and reinstate the original adult. Stories revolve around issues such as cooperating with household/family rules, taking responsibility, fairness, building self-esteem, and trust. Local Eyewitness News special report on Saturday, 2/6/10, from 10:30 AM - 6:30 PM, regarding local storm and mud slide coverage in SoCal.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming
Raven Baxter, who has inherited her grandmother's gift of clairvoyance, is a normal, happy young woman. Nonetheless, Raven sometimes worries that she is a freak because of her clairvoyant abilities. She has a ten-year old brother, Cory. They are typical siblings, with the tension and rivalry that most siblings experience. Raven and Cory's mother is in law school, and their father owns a small restaurant. Raven attends an ethnically diverse San Francisco public high school. She is responsible for the after-school safety and activities of Cory. Her closest friends, Chelsea and Eddie, are fiercely committed to environmental issues and sports, respectively. Raven dreams of a career in fashion design, and the new season's episodes revolve around her internship with an eccentric fashion designer. Raven's parents and close friends know about her "visions". These premonitions often prompt her to intervene before trouble occurs. Sometimes her interventions backfire, and at other times the foreseen events occur, bringing embarrassment or sadness. She learns valuable lessons from her transgressions. "Visions" set up issues that the Core episodes of this series explore, among which are sibling rivalry, popularity, loyalty, self-acceptance, jealousy, dealing with authority, and consequences of lying or cheating.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Thirteen-year-old Miley Stewart, recently moved from Tennessee to Malibu, CA, leads a double life. By day she attends public high school, along with her older brother Jackson, but by night she is emerging pop star "Hannah Montana". Except for her family, only her two best friends, Oliver and Lilly, and her bodyguard know about Miley's career as a singer, and she strives to maintain privacy, fearing that her new classmates would treat her very differently if they knew of her stage identity. Miley wears blonde wigs while performing, and manages to escape being recognized. Miley's mother died three years before the story begins, so her dad is now a single parent. He has just begun dating again. Miley misses her mother very much. One of the songs that she writes and performs is about the pain of growing up without her mother. Unlike her brother, Miley is a dedicated student. At school, her enemies are Amber and Ashley, two girls who constantly bully Miley. Oliver and Lilly are fiercely protective of their friend. Miley has ordinary teenage insecurities, but remains true to herself, despite the allure of concert life, the limos, parties, and glamorous clothes. This is in no small part due to the solid values that her father, Miley's manager (Billy Rae Cyrus), has imparted. Tension and sibling rivalry do occur, especially when Jackson feels that his talented sister is getting all the attention. Stories examine social issues such as peer pressure, integrity, family rules, jealousy, friendship, loyalty, and issues related to bereavement. The Saturday, March 13, 2010 episode was preempted to bring live network sports coverage of college basketball. Notice of the network sports preemption of the Saturday, March 13, 2010 episode, and of the program's makegood on the station on Saturday, March 6, 2010 at 8:30 AM the previous Saturday, was sent to program guides in accordance with normal station practice. Ordinarily, the station would also have announced the preemption and the rescheduled date and time on air during the last regularly scheduled episode of the program. However, due to human error, no on-air announcement of this preemption and rescheduling was broadcast.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Those episodes of "The Suite Life of Zack and Cody" that air on ABC as Core Programming deliver life lessons tailored for the older child and "tween" audience. Stories take place in a luxury hotel in Boston, where twelve-year-old identical twins Zack and Cody live with their divorced mom, a lounge singer for the Tipton Hotel. The boys attend a local public middle school. One of the twins is polite and shy and excels in academics, while the other, athletic and extroverted, barely scrapes by in school, due to lack of effort. He often instigates wacky plans for outwitting hotel authorities, caregivers, and their mother. The boy's mother dates and would like to remarry. Their father is a professional rock musician who is on the road much of the year, but stays in touch with his sons. This sets up occasional parental conflicts about discipline and expectations. Parallel stories involve two teenage girls: heiress London Tipton, whose father owns the hotel, and Maddie, a girl who works after school at the hotel snack bar. Unlike London, Maddie attends a parochial girls' school and comes from a working class Boston family. Series episodes explore sibling rivalry, conflicts with parents, divorce, household and hotel rules, family budget limitations, responsibility, self-esteem, and peer pressure. Local Eyewitness News special report on Saturday, 2/6/10, from 10:30 AM to 6:30 PM, regarding local storm and mud slide coverage in SoCal. Network special report on Saturday, 2/27/10, aired at approx. 10:47-10:50 AM PT. Regarding President Obama's statement about the earthquake in Chile. The Saturday, March 13, 2010 episode was preempted to bring live network sports coverage of college basketball.

He lives with a peasant foster family and faces the intellectual, physical and social challenges that all teens face, while also preparing to rule justly and well. Sometimes Kuzco wonders whether being Emperor for the rest of his days will be a pleasure or a trap. Kuzco thwarts attempts by the nefarious Yzma and her henchman, Kronk, to stop him from doing well in school. If Kuzco were to fail at his class work, Yzma would become Empress. Kuzco struggles to complete his assignments and stay on track. Only if he remains steadfast, studies hard, learns from his mistakes, and can relate to citizens at all levels of society, will he ascend the throne. His best friend Malina, an excellent student, attempts to help Kuzco stay out of trouble and achieve his goals. Series episodes explore issues such as coping with peer pressure, respecting authority, taking responsibility, adhering to family and school rules, accepting differences, building self-esteem and trust.

Riley and Todd, siblings who were raised in an orphanage after the death of their parents, long to be adopted. They find a comic book advertisement for Fleemco, an agency that will provide "Replacement" parents or adults to substitute for certain individuals. Brother and sister decide to send in the $1.98 fee in hopes of obtaining parents to replace their lost ones. They acquire an unorthodox pair of Replacement parents, Dick Daring and Agent K. Dick is a former daredevil stuntman and Agent K is a British super-spy. Neither seems to know much about parenting, although their intentions are good. Agent K's highly intelligent automobile, C.A.R., her former spy partner, also joins the household. Their attempts to forge a family and adjust to a new school are both touching and comedic. Riley and Todd discover that they can call Fleemco to request replacement of any adult whom they dislike, who is overly strict, or who is merely uninteresting. The temporary Replacements for teachers, neighbors or other community figures never prove to be as exciting or fun as the siblings had hoped, and are often immature and obnoxious. As things go awry, Riley and Todd learn that they need adult leadership, discipline, role models, order and structure. By the end of each story they are eager to return the Replacement and reinstate the original adult. Stories revolve around issues such as cooperating with household/family rules, taking responsibility, fairness, building self-esteem, and trust.

Raven Baxter, who has inherited her grandmother's gift of clairvoyance, is a normal, happy young woman. Nonetheless, Raven sometimes worries that she is a freak because of her clairvoyant abilities. She has a ten-year old brother, Cory. They are typical siblings, with the tension and rivalry that most siblings experience. Raven and Cory's mother is in law school, and their father owns a small restaurant. Raven attends an ethnically diverse San Francisco public high school. She is responsible for the after-school safety and activities of Cory. Her closest friends, Chelsea and Eddie, are fiercely committed to environmental issues and sports, respectively. Raven dreams of a career in fashion design, and the new season's episodes revolve around her internship with an eccentric fashion designer. Raven's parents and close friends know about her "visions". These premonitions often prompt her to intervene before trouble occurs. Sometimes her interventions backfire, and at other times the foreseen events occur, bringing embarrassment or sadness. She learns valuable lessons from her transgressions. "Visions" set up issues that the Core episodes of this series explore, among which are sibling rivalry, popularity, loyalty, self-acceptance, jealousy, dealing with authority, and consequences of lying or cheating.

Thirteen-year-old Miley Stewart, recently moved from Tennessee to Malibu, CA, leads a double life. By day she attends public high school, along with her older brother Jackson, but by night she is emerging pop star "Hannah Montana". Except for her family, only her two best friends, Oliver and Lilly, and her bodyguard know about Miley's career as a singer, and she strives to maintain privacy, fearing that her new classmates would treat her very differently if they knew of her stage identity. Miley wears blonde wigs while performing, and manages to escape being recognized. Miley's mother died three years before the story begins, so her dad is now a single parent. He has just begun dating again. Miley misses her mother very much. One of the songs that she writes and performs is about the pain of growing up without her mother. Unlike her brother, Miley is a dedicated student. At school, her enemies are Amber and Ashley, two girls who constantly bully Miley. Oliver and Lilly are fiercely protective of their friend. Miley has ordinary teenage insecurities, but remains true to herself, despite the allure of concert life, the limos, parties, and glamorous clothes. This is in no small part due to the solid values that her father, Miley's manager (Billy Rae Cyrus), has imparted. Tension and sibling rivalry do occur, especially when Jackson feels that his talented sister is getting all the attention. Stories examine social issues such as peer pressure, integrity, family rules, jealousy, friendship, loyalty, and issues related to bereavement.

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming
Those episodes of "The Suite Life of Zack and Cody" that air on ABC as Core Programming deliver life lessons tailored for the older child and "tween" audience. Stories take place in a luxury hotel in Boston, where twelve-year-old identical twins Zack and Cody live with their divorced mom, a lounge singer for the Tipton Hotel. The boys attend a local public middle school. One of the twins is polite and shy and excels in academics, while the other, athletic and extroverted, barely scrapes by in school, due to lack of effort. He often instigates wacky plans for outwitting hotel authorities, caregivers, and their mother. The boy's mother dates and would like to remarry. Their father is a professional rock musician who is on the road much of the year, but stays in touch with his sons. This sets up occasional parental conflicts about discipline and expectations. Parallel stories involve two teenage girls: heiress London Tipton, whose father owns the hotel, and Maddie, a girl who works after school at the hotel snack bar. Unlike London, Maddie attends a parochial girls' school and comes from a working class Boston family. Series episodes explore sibling rivalry, conflicts with parents, divorce, household and hotel rules, family budget limitations, responsibility, self-esteem, and peer pressure.

KABC-TV/ABC runs hundreds of youth-oriented PSA's throughout various time periods. KABC-TV also produces the local public affairs/informational program Vista L.A., that showcases positive influences for young and old Latino viewers. KABC-TV also sponsors many community events throughout southern California. Some of the many events the station was involved with this quarter are: King Week Celebration: Promoted the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and Martin Luther King Legacy Los Angeles King Week Festivities, through a special 7-Day Planner. Marc Brown was the Master of Ceremonies for the Kick-Off Press Conference and Marc and Michelle Tuzee were the Masters of Ceremonies of the MLK Celebration Dinner. Haiti Earthquake Relief Effort: ABC7 initiated a relief effort for the Haiti earthquake victims, by encouraging viewers to send donations to our PO Box number for the American Red Cross. Over 230,000 dollars were raised to help the Haiti earthquake victims. Kingdom Day Parade: Promoted and broadcast the Kingdom Day Parade live on MLK Day. The Station provided all of the production resources for the televised event and Michelle Tuzee and Leslie Sykes hosted the telecast, with Carlos Granda and Danny Romero acting as roving reporters in the crowd. In addition, Marc Brown was the Grand Marshall of the Parade; Phillip Palmer and Alysha Del Valle; and Rob Fukuzaki and Curt Sandoval all rode in cars in the Parade. African American Heritage Month: ABC7 was the Media Sponsor for the City of Los Angeles African American Heritage Month Celebration. We produced Public Service Announcements, and a special 7-Day Planner, promoting various African American Heritage Month events throughout the month of February. We also participated in their Opening Ceremonies, of which Leslie Sykes was the Mistress of Ceremonies; and their Creative Writing Panel, of which Amy Powell was a Panelist. ABC7 Listens Community Forum: Representatives from ABC7 Station Management, including the President and General Manager, Eyewitness News, Programming, Diversity Programs and Public Affairs, attended an open Community Forum in February, hosted by the San Bernardino Boys and Girls Club in San Bernardino. Members of the community were invited to come and voice their opinions and concerns about the media and their community, as well as learn how the Station can help them access ABC7. Rob McMillan and Bob Banfield were the Moderators. Kid Healthy: Steps for Healthy Living Diabetes & Obesity Campaign Over 80,000 4th and 5th grade students began participating in a rigorous step program, which will last from March through April, in which the students followed a regimen of exercise, nutrition and healthy living styles. The goals of the campaign were to educate and make students aware of eating habits, meal portions, and fitness and to have entities join forces to combat the obesity/diabetes type 2 epidemics. Produced Public Service Announcements with Denise Dador and Lori Corbin; hosted a Teacher Training Session at ABC7; and Denise Dador was the Mistress of Ceremonies at the Kick-off at a Gardena elementary school. HOPE (Hispanas Organized for Political Equality) High School Girls Conference: ABC7 hosted and sponsored an all day Motivational Workshop for high school girls from across the state. The workshop encouraged the girls to pursue higher education and showed them career options. They also received a tour of the Station. Alysha Del Valle was a Panelist and Teresa Samaniego and Diane Medina were Speakers. Glendale Downtown Dash: Sponsored and hosted a Booth, as well as promoted the event on the 7-Day Planner. Rob Hayes also was the Master of Ceremonies for the event, which helped raise awareness of stroke and stroke services provided in the community. Cool Kids: ABC7 sponsors the Cool Kids program year round, and in March, we hosted a Luncheon and Program for the Cool Kids and their family. They were given an award and their Savings Bond. Members of ABC7 attended and Danny Romero was the Master of Ceremonies. ABC7 Listens Community Forum: Representatives from ABC7 Station Management, including the President and General Manager, Eyewitness News, Programming, Diversity Programs and Public Affairs, attended an open Community Forum in March, hosted by the Venice Boys and Girls Club in Venice. Members of the community were invited to come and voice their opinions and concerns about the media and their community, as well as learn how the Station can help them access ABC7. Jovana Lara was the Moderator. AAJA (Asian American Journalist Association) Student Workshop ABC7 hosted and sponsored a half day Motivational Workshop for college students interested in a career in Broadcast Journalism, and they also received a tour of the Station. David Ono was the Moderator and Milli Martinez was a Panelist. Imagen Foundation: ABC7 was the Media Sponsor for the Imagen Foundations 15th Annual Entertainment Industry Career Job Fair & Workshop. We produced a fifteen second Public Service Announcement promoting the event and had a Booth at the Job Fair. Jefferson Awards: ABC7 sponsors the Jefferson Awards program year round, and in March, we hosted a Reception for the Jefferson Award winners. They were given an award and the National Winner was announced, who would go to Washington D.C. to represent California at the National Jefferson Awards. Marc Brown and Michelle Tuzee were the Masters of Ceremonies and David Ono, Ellen Leyva and Dallas Raines helped with the distribution of the Awards.
